2

Answer one question from Section A and one question from Section B.

All questions carry equal marks.

You should write 600–900 words for each question.

Section A: Imaginative writing

- 1 Write a story which begins with the following sentence: Just before reaching the corner, they turned and waved goodbye. In your writing, create a sense of adventure and anticipation.
- 2 Write two contrasting diary entries (300–450 words each): the first by a student after being shown around a new school on the first day of the year; the second by the same student, two years later, after showing a group of new students around the same school. In your writing, create a sense of mood and place.
- 3 Write a descriptive piece about the kitchen of a busy restaurant. In your writing, focus on sound, movement and smell to help your reader imagine the scene.

Section B: Writing for an audience

- 4 You recently helped to organise an event at school to raise money for a local charity. Write an article about the event for your school magazine, describing what you did and how the event will help the local charity.
- 5 A newspaper recently published an article saying that school holidays are far too long. Readers were invited to write letters to respond to this article. Write two contrasting letters (300–450 words each): one supporting the views in the article, and the other challenging them.
- 6 Your headteacher has asked you to give a speech to your school about the benefits of sport. Write the text for the speech. In your writing, create a sense of enthusiasm for sport and a desire to encourage students to be more active.
