Section A: Shorter writing and reflective commentary

Question 1

You belong to a group at university which advises new students on how to manage their money. You have offered to produce a leaflet which explains how students can live well without much money.

(a) Write the text for your leaflet, using no more than 400 words. In your writing, give advice about ways to reduce spending, and focus on the idea that university students can live well without much money. [15]

(b) Write a reflective commentary on your text, explaining how your linguistic choices contribute to fulfilling the task set. [10]

Section B: Extended writing

Answer one question.

EITHER

Question 2

Write a story called Freedom? about a prisoner who has a chance to escape. In your writing, create a sense of drama and suspense. Write between 600 and 900 words. [25]

OR

Question 3

You are going to take part in a debate at school about whether competitions are good or bad for those taking part. Your headteacher has asked you to open the debate by giving a speech on the topic. Write the text for your speech, discussing both points of view and creating a sense of interest in the debate. Write between 600 and 900 words. [25]
