(c) Name one accounting principle applied by Bilal in each of the following situations.

|                                                                                                                                                                             | accounting principle |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------|
| The double entry for the posting of the purchases journal entries is completed by posting the individual amounts to the purchases ledger.                                   |                      |
| The purchase of goods on 5 April did not include goods costing $55 which Bilal bought for his own use.                                                                     |                      |
| The stationery purchased on 6 April had been recycled. This is expected to improve the reputation of the business. Reputation is not recorded in the accounting statements. |                      |
| The value of office equipment shown in the financial statements was based on its purchase price.                                                                            |                      |

- 4 Nadia is a trader. Her financial year ends on 31 March. She extracted a trial balance at 31 March 2020. The debit and credit totals did not agree. The difference was entered into a suspense account.

After Nadia prepared draft financial statements, she discovered the following errors.

- 1 The purchases account was overcast by $110.
- 2 $13 for discount allowed in February 2020 had been credited to the discount allowed account as $15.
- 3 A payment for insurance, $220, was correctly recorded in the cash book, but was recorded as $202 in the insurance account.
- 4 Commission received, $65, had been debited to the account for commission payable. The entry to the cash book had been correctly made.
- 5 Cash drawings, $85, were correctly entered in the cash book but were credited to the drawings account.
- 6 The cost of a vehicle repair, $190, had been debited to the motor vehicles account.
- 7 A payment of $100 to Robert had been posted to the account of Roberta.

REQUIRED

- (a) Prepare the suspense account. Include the original difference on the trial balance as a balancing figure.
