General Marking Guidance

- All candidates must receive the same treatment. Examiners must mark the first candidate in exactly the same way as they mark the last.
- Mark schemes should be applied positively. Candidates must be rewarded for what they have shown they can do rather than penalised for omissions.
- Examiners should mark according to the mark scheme not according to their perception of where the grade boundaries may lie.
- There is no ceiling on achievement. All marks on the mark scheme should be used appropriately.
- All the marks on the mark scheme are designed to be awarded. Examiners should always award full marks if deserved, i.e. if the answer matches the mark scheme. Examiners should also be prepared to award zero marks if the candidate's response is not worthy of credit according to the mark scheme.
- Where some judgement is required, mark schemes will provide the principles by which marks will be awarded and exemplification may be limited.
- When examiners are in doubt regarding the application of the mark scheme to a candidate's response, the team leader must be consulted.
- Crossed out work should be marked UNLESS the candidate has replaced it with an alternative response

Question Number	Feedback from some customers suggested they became tired during the bicycle tours. To overcome this problem CCT is planning to purchase electric bicycles. To fund the cost of purchasing the electric bicycles, CCT is considering two options: Justify which one of these two options CCT should choose. Option 1: selling assets Option 2: retained profit Indicative content	Mark
3 (e)	A02 = 3 marks A03 = 3 marks A04 = 3 marks A02 • Option 1 – selling off any bicycle equipment CCT does not use can provide it with cash to buy the bicycles • Option 2 – If CCT has retained profit it has immediate access to the funds to purchase the electric bicycles A03 • Option 1 – This means they are making good use of any assets they no longer use • Option 2 – This means that CCT can adapt quickly to the changing wants and needs of its customers A04 • Option 1 – However, as the electric bicycles cost £550 each, CCT may not have many surplus assets to sell off that will cover the cost for all of the bicycles leaving them less competitive against other bicycle tours. • Option 2 – However, if CCT uses all of its retained profit to purchase the bicycles it will not have any funding to cover any unforeseen circumstances or emergencies	(9)

Question Number	Evaluate the impact on CCT of an increase in the Chinese interest rate. You should use the information provided as well as your own knowledge of business. Indicative content	Mark
4 (c)	A01 = 3 marks A02 = 3 marks A03 = 3 marks A04 = 3 marks A01 • The cost of borrowing money • The rate of interest charged by the banks A02 • If CCT want to take out a loan to cover the cost of buying electric bicycles it will be more expensive if interest rates increase • People living in China will have to pay more for borrowing money and may have less disposable income to spend on touring the country A03 • Leading to an increase in fixed costs. This means more revenue will be required to be able to reach the break-even point • This could lead to a reduction in the demand for the bicycle tours lowering the revenue for CCT and increasing the risk of business failure A04 • However, if CCT strongly believe that taking out a loan will help them to expand then it might be worth taking the risk as the additional revenue can be used to cover the higher interest rates. • However, an increase in interest rates in China may not impact the foreign tourists that visit the country, and therefore this increase in rates may have little impact on the demand for CCT's bicycle tours	(12)
