General Marking Guidance

- All candidates must receive the same treatment. Examiners must mark the first candidate in exactly the same way as they mark the last.
- Mark schemes should be applied positively. Candidates must be rewarded for what they have shown they can do rather than penalised for omissions.
- Examiners should mark according to the mark scheme not according to their perception of where the grade boundaries may lie.
- There is no ceiling on achievement. All marks on the mark scheme should be used appropriately.
- All the marks on the mark scheme are designed to be awarded. Examiners should always award full marks if deserved, i.e. if the answer matches the mark scheme. Examiners should also be prepared to award zero marks if the candidate's response is not worthy of credit according to the mark scheme.
- Where some judgement is required, mark schemes will provide the principles by which marks will be awarded and exemplification may be limited.
- When examiners are in doubt regarding the application of the mark scheme to a candidate's response, the team leader must be consulted.
- Crossed out work should be marked UNLESS the candidate has replaced it with an alternative response.

Question number	Indicative content	Mark
2 (g)	AO2 = 3 AO3 = 3 AO4 = 3 Arguments why Jubilee Insurance should choose option 1. • Introducing marine insurance opens up the market for those customers wanting to take out insurance for the purchase of leisure boats (AO2). • Marine insurance can involve many different parts such as the vessel, the cargo, the passengers and crew (AO2). • Not all businesses offer this type of insurance, which could lead to a niche market (AO3). • Insuring all the different parts has to be taken into account when working out the cost of insurance (AO3). • However, marine insurance is not an insurance that most insurance companies will offer as it has a limited market and by offering this service it will have access to more customers, which in turn could make it easier to expand (AO4). • However, Jubilee Insurance has no experience in marine insurance and would find it extremely difficult to calculate premiums (AO4). Arguments why Jubilee Insurance should choose option 2. • Young drivers cannot always get insurance for their vehicles (AO2). • Taking on younger drivers will lead to more business. (AO2). • If Jubilee Insurance expands in this manner it will be able to offer young driver insurance cover that may not be available from its competitors thus increasing revenue. (AO3). • As young drivers have more accidents they are typically charged higher premiums due to the increased risks for Jubilee Insurance (AO3). • However, young drivers tend to have more accidents, which are more expensive to repair, so Jubilee Insurance's costs will be increased and potentially could be greater than the increase in revenue received (AO4). • However, not all young drivers have accidents and if Jubilee Insurance does take on their insurance they may decide to stay with the business as they get older and therefore remain a customer with them (AO4). This could prevent it from having to close down (1). - Public liability insurance protects the business from any accidents that happen while customers are on the property (1) without it a claim could be very expensive (1). Accept any other appropriate response.	(2)

Arguments why PetShop should choose option 2. • Offering additional services such as grooming or training courses helps customers look after their pets (AO2). • Customers will know that PetShop are familiar with their dogs and their owners (AO2). • By offering additional services PetShop may gain customer loyalty and repeat business, therefore potentially increasing revenue (AO3). • This will make the customers feel happier leaving their dogs for grooming sessions with PetShop as they know they will be looked after (AO3). • However, they may not be able to offer all the services required by some pet owners, such as medical information or treatment, and those customers could go elsewhere (AO4). • However, competitors charge different prices for different services meaning the PetShop might not be competitive and would lose business (AO4). 4 (c)	AO1 = 3 AO2 = 3 AO3 = 3 AO4 = 3 • Mayse Artisan Bakery would want to find out if there is a need for the bakery (AO1). • The partners would also want to consider the location of their suppliers (AO1). • A check would be made to see if there are similar bakeries in that location (AO2). • As it is a small retailer it will need fresh ingredients on a regular basis to bake its products (AO2). • This would enable the partners to know the level and quality of the competition they will face if they open a shop (AO3). • If the suppliers are close this will guarantee the freshness of supplies and reduce transport costs (AO3). • However, if there was limited competition this could still have an impact on the sales of a new business coming in to the area and this could lead to the business failing (AO4). • However, local supplier may charge higher prices and this could make Mayse Artisan Bakery less competitive (AO4).
