General Marking Guidance

- All candidates must receive the same treatment. Examiners must mark the first candidate in exactly the same way as they mark the last.
- Mark schemes should be applied positively. Candidates must be rewarded for what they have shown they can do rather than penalised for omissions.
- Examiners should mark according to the mark scheme not according to their perception of where the grade boundaries may lie.
- There is no ceiling on achievement. All marks on the mark scheme should be used appropriately.
- All the marks on the mark scheme are designed to be awarded. Examiners should always award full marks if deserved, i.e. if the answer matches the mark scheme. Examiners should also be prepared to award zero marks if the candidate's response is not worthy of credit according to the mark scheme.
- Where some judgement is required, mark schemes will provide the principles by which marks will be awarded and exemplification may be limited.
- When examiners are in doubt regarding the application of the mark scheme to a candidate's response, the team leader must be consulted.
- Crossed out work should be marked UNLESS the candidate has replaced it with an alternative response.

Both Texts

Question Number	Answer	Mark
10	Accept EITHER choice: For chosen text: (4 marks) Two marks for choice stated with clear personal response shown Two marks for clear reference to text with examples given from text to support choice made e.g. Text 1 • fiction • third person • a child's perspective • only 1 challenge described • lots of detail • lots of feelings • a personal challenge • more informal in tone Text 2 • non-fiction • first person • adult perspective • several challenging activities • less detail • persuasive Both texts • confront their fears • learn something from their experiences For the other text: (2 marks) One mark for a clear personal response for reason text not chosen One mark for an example to illustrate reason Marks may be awarded for development of points as well as reference. Close critical analysis of language is an acceptable response. Examiners must evaluate answers on their merits and be alert to unusual responses which are, however, justified by evidence. Reward all valid responses that clearly state the reasons for the choices made. (4 + 2)	(6)

SECTION B

Assessment Objectives:

- AO1 – read and understand a variety of texts, selecting and ordering information, ideas and opinions from the texts provided. (10 marks)
- AO2 – adapt forms and types of writing for specific purposes and audiences using appropriate styles. (20 marks)
- AO3 (QWC) – Write clearly, using a range of vocabulary and sentence structures, with accurate spelling, paragraphing, grammar and punctuation. (5 marks)

Question Number	Indicative content
11	A suitable register for a letter to a friend should be adopted. Candidates should address all areas. Some candidates may interpret the task more widely and use examples of other activities than those mentioned in the passages. The possible range of activities: • personal challenges • underwater swimming • scuba diving • flying helicopters • motor-cycling • extreme sports The types of experiences: • fear • determination • pain • injuries • pride at achievement • best experience ever • independence • freedom • survival What might be learned: • how to overcome fear • find out what you are capable of • learn how to enjoy the thrill • how to be in charge • gain more confidence • growing up • feel more alive • get more out of life Reward all valid points.

AO1

Use professional judgment to award up to a maximum of 10 marks according to the following grid. Placing in any of the mark bands should be on a 'best-fit' basis.

Level	Mark	Descriptor Candidates should have:
Level 0	0	No rewardable material
Level 1	1-2	- referred to at least one bullet point - included a small number of points with some relevance - included some basic reference to experiences - demonstrated a limited ability to locate and retrieve ideas and information - given a relevant amount of limited detail
Level 2	3-4	- offered comment on at least two of the bullet points - given some relevant points - demonstrated some awareness of experiences - brought in some relevant supportive points or evidence - offered detail based on some relevant information - showed some reasonable awareness of what was enjoyable
Level 3	5-6	- covered all three bullet points securely - offered a reasonable number of relevant points - demonstrated sound awareness of the experiences - showed secure appreciation of positive and negative aspects - used appropriate material relevantly - showed sound awareness of all 3 bullet points
Level 4	7-8	- covered all three bullet points systematically - offered a good number of relevant points, probably such as those suggested in indicative content - demonstrated sustained consideration of the experiences - made well-focused, pertinent comments about all aspects - used evidence in an effective way - demonstrated a good appreciation of all 3 bullet points
Level 5	9-10	- covered all three bullet points in appropriate depth - offered a wide range of relevant points such as those suggested in indicative content - demonstrated strong regard to the nature of the experiences - presented well-focused comments with strong reference to all aspects - supported their points strongly with apt and well-chosen examples - showed strong insight into all 3 bullet points

Use professional judgment to award up to a maximum of 20 marks according to the following grid. Placing in any of the mark bands should be on a 'best-fit' basis.

Level	Mark	Descriptor
	0	No rewardable material
Level 1	1-4	• some indication that the text is intended as a letter • some limited attempt to engage reader in subject • basic ability to fit language to required task • has at least some acknowledgement of the intended audience (a friend)
Level 2	5-8	• a fair attempt to create a letter in a suitable format • generally adopts reasonably appropriate tone, but not sharply convincing or consistent • some attempt to fit language and style to purpose • has some register relevant to the specified audience (a friend)
Level 3	9-12	• sound in its capacity to write appropriately for a letter • a clear grasp of how to relate to the specified audience • writes with sound control over style and tone • choice of register and vocabulary relates soundly to audience (a friend)
Level 4	13-16	• writing shows good appreciation of required approach and format for a letter • a good, well-chosen tone of voice • vocabulary varied, flexible and appropriate to the task • relates well to the intended audience (a friend), with use of appropriate register
Level 5	17-20	• style and structure very successful and highly appropriate to a letter • successful and consistent adoption of apt tone • choice of register and vocabulary extremely well-adapted to audience (a friend), communicating effectively and lucidly • engages audience with sympathy, flair and assured language control • an excellent, perceptive awareness of format

A03 (QWC)

Use professional judgement to award up to a maximum of 5 marks according to the following grid. Placing in any of the mark bands should be on a 'best-fit' basis

Level	Mark	Descriptor
		Punctuation	Grammar	Spelling
Level 0	0	No rewardable material
Level 1	1	Basic punctuation is used with some control	Grammatical structuring shows some control	Spelling of common words is usually correct, though inconsistencies are present
Level 2	2	Full stops, capital letters, question marks are used, together with some other marks, mostly correctly	Grammatical structuring of simple and some complex sentences is usually correct	Spelling of simple words and more complex words is usually correct
Level 3	3	Control of punctuation is mostly secure, including use of speech marks and apostrophes	Grammatical structures are accurate and used to convey meanings clearly, with only occasional errors	Spelling of a wide range of words is accurate
Level 4	4	Punctuation is accurate, with a wide range of marks used to enhance communication, according to the particular focus within this triplet	A wide range of grammatical structuring is used accurately and effectively to examine the writer's chosen issues	Spelling is almost always accurate, with only occasional slips
Level 5	5	Control of the full range of punctuation marks is precise, enabling intended emphasis and effects to be conveyed (e.g. by the deployment of semi-colons, pairs of commas or dashes to indicate apposition or interpolation)	Grammatical structuring is ambitious and assured, with sophisticated control of expression and meaning	Spelling of a wide and ambitious vocabulary is consistently accurate

SECTION C

Assessment Objectives:

- AO2 – adapt forms and types of writing for specific purposes and audiences using appropriate styles. (25 marks)
- AO3 (QWC) – write clearly, using a range of vocabulary and sentence structures, with accurate spelling, paragraphing, grammar and punctuation. (10 marks)

Question Number	Indicative content
12 (a)	As no audience is specified, the examiner is assumed to be the audience. Candidates are free to agree or disagree with the statement and may present a variety of arguments. Content may include references to: how pushing the limits is essential to develop your character; how experiencing as much as possible helps you to enjoy life more; it may be selfish to think only about how you can enjoy yourself; thrill-seekers do not really care about anyone else. Examiners should be open to a wide range of interpretation.

Question Number	Indicative content
12 (b)	No indicative content can be specified, since candidates may choose to interpret the title as they wish. Candidates should be rewarded for such qualities as a sense of drama, vivid description, excitement or suspense. Examiners should be open to a wide range of interpretation. NB: Explicit reference to the title may not be mentioned until the end of the story.

Question Number	Indicative content
12 (c)	Candidates may choose a real or imagined person, living or dead. It may be a friend, family member or celebrity/someone famous. Candidates should be rewarded for their powers to evoke a sense of the person chosen, using effective vocabulary. Examiners should be open to a wide range of interpretation.
